

Raphael Kirn will be new Business Unit Manager Export of HOBART GmbH

Offenburg – Warewashing manufacturer HOBART appoints Raphael Kirn Business Unit Manager Export. From 1 of July, Kirn (33) will be responsible for the further development of the business unit, succeeding Uwe Kirchgässner, who managed the foreign sales of the world market leader commercial warewashing for more than 15 years. Raphael Kirn will also continue to be responsible for the Airline Catering section, which he took over in 2018.

Raphael Kirn started his career with HOBART as an International Project Manager of the Arline Catering International department immediately after completing his international management study. Already two years later, in 2014, he was promoted to be a Sales Manager of the same department, which gave him the chance to gather extensive sales and management experience.
